❖ Strengths

❖ This paper is excellent and is an important addition to the literature.

❖ This is an interesting topic: as the authors note, the way that communicators imagine their audiences will shape their output in significant ways.

❖ I am very glad the authors wrote this essay. It is a well-written, needed, and useful summary of the current status of "data publication" from a certain perspective.

❖ Understand why a researcher has chosen a particular approach, or communicate with researchers or stakeholders about a research approach and overarching research strategy.

❖ Your analysis of the article determines exactly what it is the author is saying and how they are saying it.

❖ Weaknesses

❖ The authors have clarified several of the questions.

❖ Please focus the abstract on your study and your results. A structured abstract should include the purpose of the research, the materials and methods, and the results.

❖ Various ways can be used in the collection of data for literature review related to research. Some of the most commonly used sources for data collection for the literature review are online libraries, books, journals, articles, and authentic websites (Government websites).
