Dear Deepa Rani,

Thank you for your email and for providing me with access to review the proofs of my article using the Taylor & Francis online proofing system. I appreciate the opportunity to ensure the accuracy and quality of my work before publication.

I have accessed the provided link and will diligently review the proofs within the stipulated timeframe. Rest assured, I will thoroughly address any Author Queries, typographical errors, or essential corrections that may arise during the review process.

Upon completion of the corrections and submission of the Author Publishing Agreement, I eagerly anticipate the publication of my article online. I understand the importance of adhering to the timeline to prevent any delays in the publication process

There are some parts that I did not correct, such as the page numbers of several articles, as I extracted them from papers which I summarized across multiple pages. Please advise on the next steps.

Thank you very much
