Aloysius,

The American Journal of Management (AJM) is inviting contributors for its winter 2023 issue. A member of our editorial board came across your paper, "The Influence of Organizational Culture on Company Performance with Disclosure of Risk Management as An Intervening Variable (Empirical Study of Property and Insurance Companies listed on the Indonesia Stock Exchange in 2014-2016," and thought it could be a good addition to the journal. To give you a little more information:

AJM is a double-blind peer-reviewed journal. The journal's h-index impact factor for 2022 is 11 and is indexed with Cabell's Directory of Periodicals, UMI-Proquest-ABI Inform, EBSCO Host, Google Scholar, Bowkers Publishing Resources, the Library of Congress, the National Library of Canada, and Australia's Department of Education Science and Training.

We would like to invite you to submit your paper for review in AJM. All papers are reviewed by appropriate topic scholars and acceptance decisions are made within forty-five days from submission. Marketing assistance will also be provided upon acceptance to ensure that your paper reaches its intended readers.

You may learn more about the journal by visiting our website at <https://nabpress.com/american-journal-of-management-background>

If you would like to have your paper reviewed, I am more than happy to receive the most recent version of your draft via email.
